

Moving forward together

Making the transition to an Integrated Care System in North Central London

MAY 2022

About us

About Traverse

Traverse is a leading independent consultancy, driven by a social purpose.

Voluntary, public, and private organisations, trust us to help them understand what people and communities think about complex issues.

We believe that an inclusive society that works for everyone must be based on good evidence, and the voices of citizens.

We are specialists in designing engagement & consultation processes to support decision-making.

Today's objectives

What do we want to achieve today?

- Use specific themes emerging from the listening exercise;
- Focus on opportunities and barriers created in the new scenario;
- Consider how staff will work together and alongside key partners in the future;
- Contribute more detailed thinking to development plans for the ICS and place-based partnerships.
- Create a space for wider reflections on how you feel.
